This Conversation’s theme will be Race-based Trauma and mental health. The panel will discuss examples of race-based traumas and their impact on higher education institutions and members of the university communities.

Students, alumni, faculty, staff and community members from across the SIU System are invited to join a live virtual discussion focusing on critical issues regarding equity and justice in our country and what we can and must do to address those issues within the SIU System and beyond. The event will feature an SIU community panel sharing their experiences and stories. A question and answer session will follow where audience participants can use the YouTube comment section or submit questions before the event by emailing pkeith@siu.edu.

SEPTEMBER 21, 2020
5-7 P.M. (CDT)

Conversations of Understanding are becoming a fixture across the SIU System and on our individual campuses. The Conversations are a series of exchanges where students, alumni, faculty, staff and the broader SIU communities can share their experiences and thoughts on a variety of themes related to diversity, inclusion and equity. We want to be a model for others in higher education and be recognized as a leader in our region and beyond for our work in fostering understanding of relevant contemporary issues.
