NEWS AND UPDATES

CUBA: Treasury Amends Regulations to Restrict Revenue Sources to the Cuban Regime : “the Department of the Treasury’s Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) amended the Cuban Assets Control Regulations (CACR) to further implement the President’s foreign policy to deny the Cuban regime sources of revenue. The changes restrict lodging at certain properties in Cuba; importing Cuban-origin alcohol and tobacco products; attending or organizing professional meetings or conferences in Cuba; and participating in and organizing certain public performances, clinics, workshops, competitions, and exhibitions in Cuba. These regulatory amendments will become effective upon publication in the Federal Register”.

CHINA: Texas A&M professor, NASA Researcher arrested for allegedly hiding affiliations with China:

“A Texas A&M University Professor and NASA researcher is accused of hiding affiliations with Chinese institutions after he was arrested Sunday. According to a report, a criminal complaint was filed against Professor Zhengdong Cheng, 53 and is expected to appear in court Monday at 10 a.m. in Houston. The charges allege that Cheng, who was also the lead researcher for NASA, allegedly took several steps for years to hid his affiliations and collaborations with Chinese companies or Universities. However, investigators say Cheng and TAMU received funds based on him knowingly providing false information to TAMU and consequently to NASA”.

MOVIE: FBI “The Nevernight Connection” Short Film:

“This FBI and National Counterintelligence and Security Center film—inspired by the case of former CIA officer Kevin Mallory—details the fictional account of a former U.S. Intelligence Community official who was targeted by China via a fake profile on a professional networking site and recruited to turn over classified information before being arrested. The FBI and NCSC seek to raise awareness of this issue and help individuals in the private sector, academic and research communities, and other U.S. government agencies guard against this threat...” <https://www.fbi.gov/news/videos>
